JOHOR BAHRU, JOHOR, 19 October 2010 - The Puteri Pacific Johor Bahru is proud to announce that its Kai Xuan Chinese Restaurant is the first chinese fine dining restaurant in Johor that is was certified HALAL by the Jabatan Agama Johor on 27 August 2010 and valid until 31 August 2011.

Halal is an Arabic word which means allowed or permitted according to Islamic law, while Thoyyibban means good quality, safety, cleanliness, nutritious and authentic. On the other hand, Halal and Thoyyibban portray the symbol of intolerance in the hygiene, safety and quality that the products must be good, safe and fit to consume.

"Halal foods is not just exclusive to the Muslim people, it is also purchased and consumed by non-Muslims, who come from many backgrounds and ethnicities. For the non-Muslims, halal has become a mark of unquestioned conformance in trade dealings with Muslims. So many non-Muslims have found it to be a credible stamp of hygiene and standards", said Mr A.F.M Shafiqul Hafiz, Managing Director, Puteri Hotels Sdn. Bhd.

"Halal certificate is not just to ensure our foods sold are halal, but also to ensure the cleanliness of the premises and food products. To certify with Halal Certification is good for our busines. It is also a form of social obligation and it will boost customers' trust and confidence in our restaurant", added Mr A.F.M Shafiqul Hafiz.
